

University of Alabama at Birmingham
College of Arts and Sciences and the Red Mountain Writing Project

Scholarly Writing Retreat

Program Evaluation

1. What is your response to the timing and schedule of this year's SWR?
 - Is July a good month, or would late May work better?
 - Is 8:00–4:00 a good schedule or would a later start/end work better?
2. What is your response to the book you received for the SWR: Anne Sigismund Huff's Writing for Scholarly Publication?
3. Did you like having food and coffee available for breakfast and throughout the day?
4. Did you like the lunch and conversation at Blazer Café each day?
5. What is your response to the daily 3:00–4:00 multidisciplinary working groups?
 - Did you benefit from the multidisciplinary conversation about your project?
 - Did you benefit from the accountability of having to talk about your accomplishments at the end of the day?
6. Describe what you accomplished from the four days of the SWR.
7. Are you satisfied or unsatisfied with what you accomplished? Please explain why.
8. Evaluate aspects of the SWR that worked best for you (and thus should be kept in future SWRs).
9. Evaluate aspects of the SWR that could be improved (and thus changed or dropped from future SWRs). If possible, please provide alternatives that you think might work better.
10. Would you recommend the SWR to your colleagues? If so, or not, what would you tell them?